

LEXINGTON ASSESSMENT AND RECEPTION CENTER

WARDEN: Kameron Harvanek

The Lexington Assessment and Reception Center (LARC) and Lexington Correctional Center (LCC) form a prison complex for men. With a capacity of more than 1,450 inmates, LARC serves as the state intake facility for all male inmates. LCC serves as a long-term incarceration facility. LARC opened in 1977 next to LCC. Today, the complex includes the maximum security assessment and reception unit, LCC (a medium-security prison), and the Rex Thompson Minimum Unit. All men sentenced to prison in Oklahoma first go to LARC. There, ODOC staff identify inmates, review their sentencing documents, enter inmates' information into agency systems, interview inmates and complete assessments to determine the best facility to place them. LCC also offers Prison Fellowship Academy and Prison Divinity Program.

CareerTech

LCC inmates can get technical training through a CareerTech Skills Center, which trains them for workforce re-entry after release. CareerTech also helps inmates find skill-related employment after release. Courses include Cabinet Making; Metal Fabrication and Welding and Licensed Trades.

Education

Many inmates lack education, a key component in avoiding re-incarceration. LCC offers literacy courses as well as diplomas for Pre-High School Equivalency and High School Equivalency.

Substance Abuse Treatment

For those inmates who need substance abuse treatment, LCC teaches them ways to avoid drug and alcohol use, while also helping them develop the cognitive, social, emotional, and coping skills needed.

Criminal Thinking

LCC offers Thinking for a Change, Moral Reconation Therapy, and Associates 4 Success programs to address thinking, judgment errors, and relationships linked with criminal behavior.
